

Reach / RoHS Declaration

Version: 1.1

The ACD Group, consisting of ACD Elektronik GmbH, ACD Systemtechnik GmbH and ACD Czech s. r. o., produces mounted electronic assemblies, electronic devices and control units (called "Products").

We are thus subject to the information requirements stipulated in art. 33 of the REACH regulation relative to our customers. At the same time, our suppliers are required to inform us about substances used with a concentration higher than 0.1% that appear in the current version of the candidate list.

We hereby confirm that based on today's state of knowledge, we are not using any substances that are subject to the information requirement.

We further hereby confirm compliance with the RoHS directives.
